Hello Spring!!!!

FSU Study

You are being invited to allow your child to take part in a research study. It is up to you whether you allow your child to participate or not. Please read the Key Information below about this research before you make your decision. More detailed information is provided in the later pages of this document. Ask us if you have any questions about this information or the research before you decide to allow your child to take part.

This study examines the structure and measurement of the working memory system in 2nd through 5th grade children. Children typically enjoy participating because of the game-like tasks similar to childhood memory games. Children also receive small prizes following participation. Permission form will be sent home in order for your child to participate they must have a sign permission form on file.

Summer Camp Update

Summer Camp registration has began. Packets are located in the front office as well as with Ms. Keke in the EDEP office. This year's theme is "Disney Bound". Your registration fee is due when you turn in your packet. Payment options are available for those who would like to start paying for summer camp now. All fee's are available online through the eFunds website.
