

INTEREST EARNED

Interest earned on internal accounts interest bearing checking, savings, money market or CD accounts should be recorded during month end closeout procedures. The interest should be recorded via journal entries and posted to the designated cash account and the general student account.