Thank you for understanding that as times change, we must also change.

English department student directions for April 27 through May 18

1. Finish reading Anthem by Ayn Rand. If you are picking up this packet, it probably means you also have a copy of the book. However, included are a couple of links to book online in case you want them.

2. Complete the study guide for each chapter. The directions apply to all the chapters.

Directions:

- The first task for each chapter is to write a chapter summary. This should be several sentences long.
- The second task offers a choice between writing a question about what you are reading or writing down something about the chapter you would like to discuss. You must choose one or the other. Do not leave this blank!
- The third task in each chapter asks two questions specifically about the chapter. Answer the question fully and provide cited textual evidence when asked to do so.
- The final task in each chapter is to choose a quote from the chapter that you believe is significant. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.
- Look up any literature terms you do not know or consult your class notes.

3. Your work is due Monday, May 18. Your teachers expect that your work will be returned on time and that you show good effort.

Please type or sign your name here indicating the work you do will be our own. _____

Chapter 3

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. What are the "strange little globes of glass" Equality 7-2521 refers to on page 54? What context clues led you to understand this?

4. Equality 7-2521 says that although he is frightened, he will not stop now. What do you predict will happen in the coming chapters? What makes you think this?

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.

Chapter 4

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. You have probably noticed that the chapters have gotten shorter as the story progresses. Why might the author make the choice to write shorter chapters?

4. "The Golden One" has renamed the narrator as "Unconquered." Why do you think she has chosen this name? Explain your answer with cited textual evidence. You may include evidence from previous chapters.

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. On page 71, Equality 7-2521 faces the Council and says, "Let us flood our cities with light. Let us bring a new light to men!" What does light symbolize? Fully explain your response.

4. Using textual evidence, explain two of the reasons the Council rejects the light.

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.

Chapter 8

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. Explain the difference in the imagery used to describe the Uncharted Forest at the beginning of this chapter and the halls described in chapter one. Cite your evidence.

4. What does the Uncharted Forest symbolize? Explain.

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.

Please type or sign your name here indicating the work you do will be our own. _____

Chapter 9

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. On pages 82-83, Liberty 5-3000 contrasts Equality-257-21 with his fellow men. Paraphrase the passage beginning with "your eyes" and ending with "from you."

4. What has Equality 7-2521 learned about the concepts of solitude, good, evil, joy, and love that contrasts the way he lived in his former society? Cite textual evidence in this response.

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.

Chapter 10

1. Chapter summary:

2. I had difficulty understanding/would like to discuss:

3. Equality 7-2521 is confused that a man would build a house so small as to only hold twelve men. What does he later discover about who lived in the house during the "Unmentionable times," and how does this contrast with the society he has left?

4. The Golden One is mesmerized by "the big glass that is not glass" (92). Why is she so amazed? Describe what you think you would feel if you, today, saw yourself for the first time in the big glass.

5. Please write the full quote, the page number, and identify the speaker. Then explain the context of the quote (what is happening at this point in the story) and explain why this quote is significant.
